Description

A beautiful carved wooden and polychrome painted head from a female Saint. Heavily worn with age, this beautiful head is a fragment from one of a large statue. The wood is affected by woodworm and probably moisture, it's professionally treated and the wood is well preserved and a solid piece. A very serene looking face, wonderful faded colours. This beautiful head dates from the 17th century and is in wonderful preserved condition. 32 cm high, 22 cm wide.
