Description

This beautiful bather offering us her back wrapped in her red bath towel in an ethereal nature is a pretty Work from the beginning of the 19th century on canvas mounted on thick cardboard of the time in its magnificent frame with palmettes of the time in high quality carved gilded wood with bright golds. This luminous and sensual painting is applied and reveals a talented Artist who has not signed. This does not prevent this mastered painting from being ravishing and very Academic in a "Neo-Classical" spirit of good quality. A decorative and fine painting, clean and with a well-composed subject, luminous and detailed, this clean, adored and well-detailed Work presented divinely has something to seduce, a beautiful piece in very good condition two centuries now...And still as
