Description

VICTORIEN BASTET (Bollène, 1852-1905)
Allegory of the Month of May 1890 Terracotta 50 cm Signed, dated, and titled: VBastet / 1890 / Moi de Mai Restoration to the pedestal Bust of a smiling and joyful girl titled Mois de Mai, by Victorien Bastet, dating from 1890. Bastet, born a peasant in Bollène in the Vaucluse (50 km north of Avignon), became one of the best sculptors in France and this terracotta bust of a young girl is a variant of his work Première Sensation of 1882, which is known from from an original plaster and two terracotta proofs - all three unfortunately unlocated today. With this young girl Bastet has captured a smile, an authentic joy, which is pure and without artifice.
