Description

Louis XV style curved chest of drawers, early 20th century
Elegant Louis XV style curved chest of drawers, made at the beginning of the 20th century. This refined piece of furniture is distinguished by magnificent marquetry work with geometric patterns, combined with rich chiseled and gilded bronze ornaments: handles, falls, sabots and decorations on the front. The top is in original molded veined red marble, bringing an additional touch of prestige to the whole. High quality work, in the spirit of 18th century productions.
