Description

Comfortable and solid set of four Louis XV chairs in the dark patinated stained beech model, covered with a yellow woven canvas with small blue patterns. Decorative, effective and elegant to make a table surround (back of the backs visible as well as the whole seat, upholstered with fresh and a pleasant and generous seat like the well-padded back; a set that can be used for the surround of a games table, like a dining room apart.. Pegged in belt and elegant these seats are neatly sculpted and in Louis XV style; with a scalloped back and seat and arched legs, all in the spirit of the 18th century executed during the reign of Louis Philippe (1840).
