Description

Study set of 16 French Fashion plates published by Le Moniteur de là Mode during the 1840s. They represent adult fashions that can inspire seamstresses who wish to dress their Pauline dolls. They belonged to Mathilde Héritier, who was a renown Swiss seamstress. She bought them framed from a family and kept the plates in a study folder that she used during the 1990s, when she dressed antique dolls on order. Dimensions: 10 1/2 x 7 1/2 inches. Feel free to ask any questions or for more pictures!
