

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Watercolour On Paper, Signed Dalbono. Naples, 19th Century

950 EUR

Signature : Eduardo Dalbono

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Water color

Width : 53 cm

Height : 35 cm

Description

Charming Neapolitan Folkloric Scene by Eduardo Dalbono (Naples, 1841 - 1915), watercolor on paper. This evocative and narratively rich artwork captures a lively genre scene, presumably set in a Neapolitan square, animated by a group of street musicians playing various instruments. In the background, among the crowd, a young couple can be seen exchanging a kiss--a tender, poetic detail that adds a romantic and melancholic touch, perfectly in line with Dalbono's lyrical sensibility. Eduardo Dalbono, a prominent figure of the Scuola di Resina, was trained within the vibrant Neapolitan Verist movement. He became known for his ability to blend popular realism with soft, emotionally charged atmospheres. Celebrated for his views of Mount Vesuvius and everyday scenes transfigured by dreamy, diffused

Dealer

Comproarteroma

Art and antiques gallery

Mobile : +393401217967

Via Vodice 9

Roma 00195

light, Dalbono infused his works with refined visual poetry. The painting is enhanced by a gilt frame, either period or coeval, which adds brightness and elegance to the delicate hues of the watercolor. Excellent condition. The work is intact, with fresh colors and well-preserved paper.