Description

Centerpiece. Glass and silver. 20th century. With contrasting marks. Centerpiece in transparent white glass decorated with simple geometric motifs arranged in bands, alternating a space with these larger, more transparent elements and other triangular ones with a very dense decoration. The bottom of the piece repeats the same elements.

The base, in silver, has no decoration other than a simple play of curves, in order to focus attention on the glass and the delicacy of its workmanship.

Illegible marks. - Size: 25x25x12 cm
