Description

Chest from Reggio Emilia (Emilia), late 17th century, in walnut.

Refined 17th century chest with panelled front decorated with typical Reggio motifs.

The upper surface, front and sides are made from a single walnut board, while the legs are carved with a leaf motif.

The key and lock are original and functional. Its reduced depth characterizes it, making it very practical for furnishing.

Dimensions (cm): Width 170, Depth 44, Height 56.
