Description

Augusto Murer, "Mondina," Patinated bronze, signed at base, 1975 This fascinating bronze sculpture depicts the figure of the Mondina. The work is signed at the base and has a fine patina that enhances its plastic modeling.⁷⁵ examples The clothing of the mondine consisted of: cotton stockings and a handkerchief pulled over the face, as protection against the stings of the many insects that infested these marshy environments; wide-brimmed hat, or a handkerchief (of their choice), to shield themselves from the sun; shorts or skirts. From the sculpture one can see the author's mastery in depicting in great detail each part of the clothing Measurements: H 32 cm.
