Description

Exceptional decorative dish in Limoges porcelain from the early 20th century, Antique decoration entirely hand-painted. The wing of our porcelain is decorated with interlacing composed of plants and flowers in relief made with gold paste on a turquoise blue background. The basin is decorated with an Antique scene, showing a woman dressed in a drape, holding a mirror placed on a selette on which is a kitten. Our plate is decorated with a gold border on its outline and a second delimiting the wing and the marli. This very beautiful work was carried out by the Balleroy et C^o decoration workshops located at 44 rue de Chateauroux in Limoges and bears its stamp in manganese red. A second stamp is present in chrome green for the manufacturer having produced the piece in white William
