trade. He mainly produced chests of drawers, corner cabinets and secretaries with pretty undulating shapes covered with lacquer or European varnish in the Chinese style. But the originality of this cabinetmaker consisted above all in covering his furniture with marquetry of large flowers in light wood contrasting on a background of rosewood or violet. Pierre Fléchy is still reported rue du Faubourg Saint-Antoine in 1769. Delivery throughout France for 150 euros do not hesitate to contact me for more information in order to buy with full knowledge
