Description

A reworking of the eponymous painting created in 1831 by Camille Roqueplan, preserved in the collections of the Louvre Museum and currently on loan to the National Museum of the Château de Fontainebleau, this work pays tribute to the talent of the Romantic painter. In this composition, the artist sensitively restores the changing atmosphere of the Normandy shores, between tormented skies and trembling seas. The light, dramatic and subtle, evokes the Romantic aesthetic dear to Roqueplan, where nature imposes its power and mystery. This painting, of beautiful quality of execution, will seduce lovers of period seascapes as well as enthusiasts of French Romanticism. A decorative and evocative painting, ideal for lovers of seascapes or Romantic inspirations.
