Description

Beautiful and famous vase from the 1930s in compressed glass from the house of René Lalique, this piece is from the period because in view of its success due to its elegance repeated many times... This one is from the period and has made a home happy, we will forgive its little life (wear on the sole and small opacities), it nevertheless remains a beautiful piece proud of all its elegance. Its remarkable graphics in cascade with ornate volutes, its faceted tulip body, all contribute to a prestigious piece with a strong personality and impeccable stylization worthy of this "Art Deco" of the 1930s.. An authentic piece signed under the sole, beautiful and just as nearly a hundred years later at your service...
