

Chrysanthemum-shaped Tsuba (kiku) - Edo Period (1603-1868)

320 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Japanese openwork iron tsuba (sukashi), dating from the Edo period (1603-1868). This sword guard adopts the shape of a kiku (chrysanthemum), the imperial symbol in Japan, finely cut to reveal a very fine craftsmanship.
Material: Openwork iron (sukashi)
Shape: Kiku (stylized chrysanthemum)
Maximum diameter: 73 mm
Condition: Homogeneous patina A rare collector's item, combining elegance and tradition, ideal for lovers of Japanese armor and antique swords.

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100