Description

Small Masonic porcelain pillbox, 19th century
Description Oval pillbox in enameled porcelain, decorated on the lid with a hand-painted decoration representing Freemason symbols: set square, compass, mallet and column, surrounded by stylized foliage. The interior is soberly decorated with a small blue floral motif. Brass frame with fleur-de-lis clasp closure. Old handwritten mark on the reverse (unidentified). Collector's item linked to the Masonic world, typical of the 19th century.
Condition: Very good condition, no chips or cracks.
