Description

Immerse yourself in the elegance of the Belle Époque-Art Nouveau period with this captivating early 20th-century French daisy cluster ring. Its center features a cushion-cut sapphire of approximately 1.20 ct, a deep cornflower blue, surrounded by twelve Old Mine diamonds totaling ~0.60 ct. The whole is set in a scalloped 18K (750?) yellow gold bezel, enhanced with a fine grain of rice and an openwork gallery, signatures of the romanticism of the period. Ideal for collectors of antique French jewelry, vintage sapphire rings, or Belle Époque floral ensembles, this piece combines historical craftsmanship with timeless elegance: a remarkable heirloom or a unique engagement ring. Technical sheet Ring size: FR 55 (resizable upon request) Metal: 18K (750?) yellow gold Period: Early 20th century
