Description

Superb patinated bronze sculpture by Oreste Dequel (1923-2002), an Italian-born artist who became a Belgian citizen, renowned for his abstract works that combine strength and poetry. This piece, mounted on a black stone base, represents an organic and stylized form, evoking a human figure in movement, characteristic of Dequel's unique style. The artist's signature play of solids and voids gives the work an inner tension and great expressiveness.
