Description

Pierre LADUREAU (1882-1974) Original lithographic poster created for the Compagnies des Chemins de fer de l'État, representing a view of Yaudet, in the vicinity of Lannion. Signed in the plate at the bottom left Canvas-backed poster, 103 x 75 cm for the subject. Student of Edmond Aman-Jean and Jean-Paul Laurens, he was a member, in Paris, of the committee of the Salon des Indépendants, a member of the Salon d'Automne and a founding member of the Salon des Tuileries. Essentially a painter of Breton landscapes, he also illustrated novels. "A very fine sensitivity, without gratuitous outbursts, halfway between naturalism and impressionism, marks this sensitive and true art." - Gérald Schurr, Les Petits maîtres de la peinture.
