have been in the museums of Draguignan, Liseux, and Pontoise and have been auctioned throughout France and the UK. Weisz won numerous medals and awards and painted romantic scenes often with an orientalist theme such as this work. This painting is in superb original condition and ready to hang. Similar orientalist works by the artist have sold for in excess of 100,000 GBP. This work is from a private French collection. The painting offered had a similar tonality to "La favorite" which sold at auction in New York in 2005. Condition report: In good original condition. We think the painting had possibly been cleaned in the past as there are a few areas of possible over-cleaning, which in our opinion does not detract from what is a stunning portrait painting. There appears to be no other restoration work on the paint surface and the unlined canvas has no repairs to the verso. The canvas is in good tension and condition given its antiquity.
