Description

Vintage Handmade Persian Gabbeh Rug "Gabbeh" (???) in Persian means "raw," "natural," or "unfinished," reflecting its rustic, tribal nature. This beautiful rug is made of wool on wool and professionally cleaned. A handmade Persian Gabbeh rug is a traditional handwoven rug from Iran, known for its thick pile, vibrant colors, and simple, often whimsical designs. Primarily made by the Qashqai and Luri tribes in the Fars Province of southwest Iran. All our rugs are handmade, and we also offer professional cleaning.
