

Portrait Of Jean Paul Laurens By François Flameng, Pencil Drawing

280 EUR

Signature : François Flameng, Paris 1856-1923

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Width : 23 cm

Height : 35 cm

Description

Son of the famous painter and engraver Léopold Flameng, François Flameng attended the Lycée Louis-le-Grand in Paris. Learning to paint from his father, he entered the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris in the studio of Alexandre Cabanel, then in those of Pierre Edmond Alexandre Hédouin and Jean-Paul Laurens. The sheet has been folded in 4. Provenance: Félix Thiollier, archives of his descendants.

Dealer

Blanès

Tableaux, dessins, gravures & objets d'art

Tel : 06 37 85 49 14

12 rue Charles Gide

Poitiers 86000