Description

Rare enameled porcelain vase, Art Nouveau style, signed E. Granger. This vase is distinguished by its rich floral decorations in relief, in vibrant shades of yellow, green, blue and purple. On a slightly speckled pale green background, stylized flowers adorn the body of the vase, testifying to a work of great finesse and a beautiful mastery of colored enamel. The neck is decorated with a multicolored floral frieze, adding a refined touch to the whole. French manufacture, by the artist Emile Granger, he worked for Sèvres porcelain. This vase evokes the productions of the late 19th or early 20th century, in the Art Nouveau style. Rare and decorative collector's item, ideal for ceramic art lovers and enthusiasts of the Art Nouveau period.
