Description

Repousse Silver Round Box - Double-Sided Animal Hunting Scene - Late 19th Century - 240gMagnificent round box in finely chased silver, decorated using the repoussé technique, probably of Asian origin (Burma or British colonial India), dated to the late 19th century. Description This piece is distinguished by its highly detailed ornamental work. The body of the box features three distinct hunting scenes, in high relief, each framed within a profusion of foliage, stylized flowers and scrollwork: A chimerical winged creature with a feline appearance and a body covered in scales, surrounded by floral motifs. A leaping wild beast in full pursuit, within a dynamic plant setting. A fantastical bird or phoenix, with detailed plumage and outstretched wings, symbolizing vitality and
