Description

Large seven-light wall sconce, attributed to Maison Baguès or Maison Banci - circa 1970
Imposing seven-light wall sconce in gilded patinated wrought iron, attributed to the prestigious Maison Baguès or Maison Banci, famous for their expertise in the art of decorative lighting combining metal and crystal. This model features a symmetrical composition decorated with scrolls and stylized flowers springing from a central cut crystal vase. The whole is adorned with white crystals with a mirrored background, accentuating the brilliance of the piece while reinforcing its decorative refinement. The work of the gilded metal and the floral motifs evoke the revisited baroque style typical of the creations of these houses in the 1970s. ??? Height: 67 cm
??? Width: 102 cm ??? Depth: 14 cm ???
