

---

French School: Pietà, Oil On Copper, 17th/18th Century

1 500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Copper

Length : 31 cm

Width : 31 cm

Description
-------------

French School: Pietà, oil on copper, 17th/18th century
Very pretty oil on copper, 17th/18th century - French School: Pietà
Provenance: - Christie's, Amsterdam, Auction 3040: Old Masters & 19th Century Art - including Dutch Impressionism, 20 & 21 November 2013, lot 115 (sold for over 3500 euros)
Description
This painting depicts the Pietà: the Virgin Mary weeping over the body of Christ after his crucifixion. Mary, dressed in red and blue, tenderly supports her son lying down, marked by suffering. Emotion and light underline the sacred pain of this scene. The gilded wooden frame is decorated with olive leaves and a beaded frieze, bringing elegance and solemnity to the central religious scene. Format with frame 31 cm x 31 cm
Condition: Good general condition, slight

Dealer
--------

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

age-related damage to the frame An ideal collector's item for lovers of religious art and copper paintings Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the objects offered for sale.