Description

Italian school circa 1650 The Crucifixion of Christ This painting depicts the dramatic scene of the Crucifixion of Christ, more precisely the moment when Jesus is nailed to the cross. Description Lying on the ground, arms outstretched, he endures the violence of the executioners, armed with hammers and ropes. In the background, several female figures, probably including the Virgin Mary, watch the scene with pain. The composition highlights the physical and emotional tension of the moment, accentuated by the tormented sky and the violent gestures. The gilded wooden frame, soberly ribbed, brings a discreet solemnity to this poignant work.
