Description

We present this spectacular antique wardrobe in solid walnut wood, made in the mid-19th century in Italy, Louis Philippe period. This wardrobe is very rare for its large size, equipped with four doors. Free from excessive ornamentation, very simple and linear with doors characterized by squared panels. The sides have the same squared decoration. The wood has a splendid shade of black color which and this feature combined with the linearity makes it easily combinable with both classic antique interiors and modern interiors where you want to insert a distinctive element. The interior is divided into two parts, both parts are equipped with a clothes rail at the top and two shelves at the bottom. It is possible to modify the interior according to your needs. We can make the modification for you but it is
