

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Mother-of-pearl Travel Cutlery Set In Shagreen Case

4 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : longueur fourchette de 16,8 cm x couteau de 19,3 cm x étui de 19,9 cm

Description

Travel set consisting of a knife and a three-tined fork.

Both pieces of silver and steel cutlery with mother-of-pearl handles decorated with scrolls.

Gold ferrules

and collar.

Small grain

shagreen case with cutlery set in opposition.

On the fork are the "Swan" hallmark (manufacturer's hallmark) and the "trefle de passage" (regulatory hallmark certifying that the object has been inspected and validated by the authorities when it entered France).

Condition: Restoration on the mother-of-pearl

Dealer

Galerie DELALANDE

Marine & Sciences, Tobacco & Opium objects, Canes, Curiosa

Tel : 00 33 1 42 60 19 35

Mobile : 00 33 6 60 90 21 59

35 rue de Lille

Paris 75007

handles of the knife and fork.

Reference: similar model with opposite cutlery

(different handles) page 91 n°154 in the book

Hollander / n 133 'Couverts' coll

J. Hollander. Dimensions: length of fork 16,8 cm

x knife 19,3 cm

x case 19,9 cm.

Europe made in the early of the XIXth century