

Pair Of Naval Officer's Pistols, Tulle, 18th Century

4 950 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Description

Large model of naval officer pistols called "chien de mer" from the Tulle Manufacture, signed "Gillet à Tulle" on the plates (left - right) and below the springs "Duché". The intact wood of the stocks is magnificently chiseled with a long-maned "chien de mer" and stamped with a fleur-de-lis. Barrels signed DESAGA, gunner in Tulle. Nail-head ramrods. Iron fittings. Finely worked enveloping mouthpieces in arabesques with sights. Hooked counter-plates. Length of pistols: 30 cm. Length of barrels: 18 cm. Caliber 15 mm. See identical pistol at the National Museum of the Navy. One of the first superb models of this type of pistol created by Duché,

Dealer

Collection

Collection

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000