Description

Charming 19th-century silver-gilt and mother-of-pearl cutlery set, consisting of a fork and a spoon. The handles are mother-of-pearl, and the front and back bolsters are silver-gilt, decorated with large rocaille shells, acanthus leaf scrolls, and ornate friezes. The silver-gilt parts are all highly decorated. The fork and spoon are hallmarked: The so-called Vieillard hallmark, or Michelangelo hallmark for 950/°° Parisian silver between 1819 and 1838.. The head of Ceres, a hallmark for large silver works from the same period.. A silversmith's hallmark to be identified, possibly JM with a lyre (?). Later control mark with a boar's head, after 1838. Very beautiful cutlery, with a beautiful combination of mother-of-pearl and silver-gilt, which lends elegance and preciousness. The use of these
