Description

I re-positioned this ad because I approached an expert and former worker of Camille Fauré to have period rings put back and to have this vase appraised. So the rings are ok, in period silver metal, and the expert told me that this vase had been made by Lucie Dadat between 1930 and 1950, one of the 5 best workers of Camille Fauré. So superb vase by Camille Fauré in Limoges in the form of a soliflore typical of Fauré, with a magnificent stylized Art Deco and cubist decoration, with repeated fans in very high relief and translucent white enamel with blue highlights, then geometric shapes in shades of red, orange and black on silver flakes. Signed and located inside the neck. Vase in good condition, I just note a small rework on the top of the vase, but superbly done on a small surface (
