Description

Oil painting on canvas depicting Magdalene, a work of the 17th century Italian school. The canvas represents a beautiful Mary Magdalene in meditation. She has her gaze turned hopelessly towards the sky and her hands clasped close to the traditional symbols of penance: the skull and the cross. The subject, due to its melancholic component, can fall into the genre of vanitas, where female beauty linked to meditation plays a priority role. The painting has a very high pictorial and chromatic quality. Dimensions: 66cm x 142.5cm
