Description

Elegant roller desk in rosewood, mahogany and fruitwood veneer made in the second half of the 19th century. The piece of furniture rests on four legs shaped in Louis XV style, slender and sinuous, ending with bronze ends. The front part has three undercounter drawers, elegantly shaped, enriched with floral inlays with naturalistic motifs made with different wood essences. The central body is dominated by the roller, which can be opened with a key, embellished with a splendid inlay depicting a neoclassical cup full of flowers, framed by stylized geometric motifs in the corners. When opening the roll, the interior reveals a desk space with small drawers.

Dimensions: Width: 73 cm - height: 98 cm - depth: 46 cm - depth with open desk: 71 cm
