PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Balny Jeune - System Library Stool Circa 1810 - Mahogany And Silk Velvet

2 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Mahogany

Description

Visible in Paris. Free delivery for France and bordering countries. Contact us for the rest of the world.System stoolMahogany and mahogany veneerStamped on two crosspiecesDimensions: H. 57 ; D. 35 ; W. 42 (cm.)Paris, circa 1810 - 1820Unusual high stool with retractable footboard in solid mahogany and mahogany veneer. It rests on lotiform feet. The double-baluster base is connected by an H-shaped brace. This type is also known as a "box stool".Balny JeuneBalny Jeune, whose first name is Pierre-Marie, is based on rue de Charenton. Together with his wife, he employs many workers. He made many fine mahogany seats, as well as a small number in gilded wood.Work in comparison: tabouret à système, Hôtel des ventes d'Enghien, November 25, 1979, n°56 in. Denise

Dealer

Schoppmann Art and Antiques
Mobilier, objets d'art et décoration
Mobile : 0666629452

838 chemin de la Lauve
Saint-Raphaël 83700

Ledoux-Lebard, Les ébénistes du XIXe siècle p. 36Condition report: stamped varnish in good condition, original seat covered with embossed silk velvet by Bonvallet.