Description

Date: 17th centuryTechnique: Oil on copperDimensions:Frame: 36 x 29 cmPlate (copper): 27 x 20 cmDescription:A beautifully crafted 17th-century oil painting on copper depicting the Holy Family with the Virgin Mary, the Christ Child, Saint Joseph, and a kneeling Franciscan saint--possibly Saint Francis of Assisi or Saint Anthony of Padua. The scene is rendered with great care in color, drapery, and expression, typical of devotional works of the Baroque period.Painted on a copper plate, this work demonstrates the luminosity and detail that this prized medium, appreciated by the Flemish and Italian masters of the period, allowed. The composition evokes both intimacy and contemplation, set against a serene pastoral background.Provenance: An inscription on the
