Description

Origin: FranceDate: 18th centuryDimensions:Width: 170 cmDepth: 80 cmHeight: 90 cmSeat height: 42 cmDescription:An exceptional 18th century Louis XVI period sofa, constructed using an authentic wooden dowel joint, a characteristic of pre-industrial craftsmanship. The elegantly curved back and arms are supported by a finely carved giltwood frame, decorated with classical motifs and fluted legs, typical of the refined neoclassical aesthetic of the Louis XVI period.The upholstery is a richly woven damask fabric, in a delicate pink with a cream floral pattern, in excellent condition. The seat is comfortably padded and the structure is remarkably stable, making it as functional as it is decorative for high-end interiors.This piece
