

Opaline And Bronze Lamp, Louis XVI Style

Description

Louis XVI style lamp with a golden yellow fabric shade with finely worked bias. The base is made up of two opaline parts: an upper one, in a rounded vase, decorated with grooves, connected by a golden acanthus leaf to the lower one. The latter rectangular in chiseled molding is decorated with grooves. The whole rests on a bronze base with four claw feet whose angles are patterned with scrolls on the top. In good condition, with slight signs of wear. For any vintage or antique lighting, we always recommend having it checked and installed by a qualified electrician.
