Description

Italian pilgrim's flask or Fiasca schicciata, dating from the 19th century, pear-shaped in polychrome majolica with putti decoration on the front and theater curtain decoration on the back. Handle in the shape of a satyr's head with curled horns, adding a mythological touch; pedestal with two loops. Dominated by shades of blue, yellow and rosewood, the flask displays meticulous details and a glossy finish. Majolica stopper with vice. In perfect condition, note a slight wear on the satyrs' noses, visible in the photos. Signed on the base Ginori. Measures: 40cm/15.75" height, 13cm/5.12" depth and 25cm/9.84" width.
