

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Teapot, Jean-baptiste-claude Odier, First Empire In Silver

2 150 EUR

Signature : Odier

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Teapot from the First Empire period in solid silver with the guarantee hallmarks for first-grade silver (950%) from the Paris guarantee office for the period 1809-1819. It is from the hand of the famous and prestigious master goldsmith Jean-Baptiste-Claude Odier (1763-1850), son, grandson and father of a goldsmith, he is without a doubt the most famous member of this dynasty of Parisian goldsmiths. Supplier to members of the Emperor's family, of whom Madame Mère was his best customer. The cradle of the King of Rome is without a doubt his most famous work. After the restoration of the Bourbons, he continued his commercial success by supplying to more or less all the crowned heads of Europe. The teapot is engraved with a wedding coat of arms topped with a crown. The coat of arms of

Dealer

Collection

Collection

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

the wife, who was a member of the Jehannot d'Huriel de Bartillat family, Marquis d'Huriel et de Bartillat, are present. The engraved shield GJ which appears twice on the teapot corroborates this identification. It weighs 370 grams. Price: 2150 EUR. Artist: Jean-baptiste-claude Odier, 1763-1850 Period: 19th century Style: Empire - Consulate Condition: Very good condition Material: Solid silver Height: 13.5 cm