Description

Elegant and serene, this ancient bronze Buddha statue embodies all the spirituality and symbolism of Buddhist art. Depicted seated in a meditation posture (dhyana mudra), the facial features are delicately modeled, imbued with inner peace. The style and patina suggest a Thai or Laotian origin, probably from the 18th-19th centuries. The openwork base and the refinement of the details, notably the hairstyle and the hand gesture, testify to careful craftsmanship and a beautiful antiquity.
