Description

17th Century Italian School Ecce Homo - Christ

Before the Crucifixion Medium: Oil on canvas

Provenance: From a French private collection

The overall measurements including the frame are 114cm x 88cm x 5cm and the painting measures at 91 x 66cm A very fine, large early 17th-century Italian old master oil-on-canvas depicting Christ bound with rope around his wrists and with the crown of thorns placed on his head. Relined around 1900 and ready to hang, the present work is beautifully composed and skilfully executed. In comparison to other versions of this popular motif, this particular painting is an outstanding example. Condition report: the canvas was lined approximately 120 years ago. The canvas is in good tension and the paint surface is stable. There is some very small
