with wear and tear on the fringes. It features a decoration of arabesques, flowers, quite breathtaking mandorlas. This beautiful Persian carpet takes up the criteria of ancient Persian decorations, knotted with great finesse. We can hardly imagine the immense work to knot such a marvel. The quality of these Persian pieces is not to be demonstrated, the work is fine, precise and durable. The materials used are of first quality: This carpet is clean, the wool is knotted admirably and finely tight as these carpets always are. It reveals to us nuances full of contrasts, very many colors, blue, pink, rust, green, apricot, black, ivory, straw yellow and gold. The nuances underline this learned floral design in the great tradition of Persian art that we also find in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian empire. # Carpet knotted under the Kadjar dynasty or Kadjars (Qajar, Qadjar, Qajar, Persian: Turkmen dynasty that ruled Iran from 1786 to 1925.## For information: Tabriz (Azerbaijani: Təbriz/ تهریز, formerly Tauris), is the capital of the province of East Azerbaijan, in the northwest of Iran (Iranian Azerbaijan). Tabriz is located on the course of the Talkheh River (also called Aji-Chai), near Lake Urmia, close to the borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Armenia. It is the gateway to Persia from north to west. The Tabriz have an extreme importance in the quality of Persian carpets and a very great international reputation. They are among the most prized carpets in the world, their work is always very fine and durable over time. This carpet has been professionally cleaned and ecologically sound.
