

Cellar Rat - Late 18th, Early 19th Century

120 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

Small rustic folk art cellar rat or candle holder from the late 18th - early 19th century. Entirely made of wrought iron, assembled with a rivet. Classic model with a tripod base supporting a large cup from which the candle holder cylinder is raised, made of spiral wrought iron and housing a push-button system to raise or lower the candle as it burns. Good condition. No breakage, no missing parts. Rustic, "rusted" appearance. Height 14 cm, support width 9.5 cm

Dealer

Chaumont Claude

antiquités 16 ème siècle au 20ème siècle.

Mobile : 0685827789

6 rue pasteur

Abbécourt 02300