Description

Beautiful handmade Karabakh rug. Mid-20th century. Dimensions: 137 cm x 299 cm. This rug is handmade of wool on cotton. This rug features a beautiful dog and horse design. The colors are warm. Handmade Karabakh rugs are outstanding examples of Caucasian textile art, renowned for their vibrant colors, intricate designs, and rich cultural heritage. Originating in the Karabakh region, which spans parts of present-day Azerbaijan and Armenia, these rugs have been woven for centuries, often by women for their dowries. Typically made from high-quality wool, these rugs are known for their dense, durable texture and longer pile compared to other Caucasian rugs. Karabakh rugs feature a variety of designs, including floral motifs, medallions, and symbolic depictions of animals like dragons
