Description

Sologne porcelain dinner service from the Larchevêque factory, founded in 1850. A very sober, white set with fine gold frieze decoration. Perfect for setting a splendid table for any occasion, and to surprise your guests with this timeless, timeless model. The set includes 16 dinner plates, 12 soup plates, 1 soup tureen, 2 serving dishes and 10 dessert plates with cross-gilded flowers, also from Vierzon. In very good condition. 20th century. A little history: In Berry, one name symbolizes the world of porcelain, that of Larchevêque. Its history began in 1850 and ended 136 years later on Thursday, September 28, 1986. By 1900, its workshops were among the most modern in Berry. Four generations of Larchevêque have built and run this flagship of the Berry porcelain
