Description

Superb table lamp made by Maison Baguès, Paris, in the 1950s. It is decorated with the Baguès urns, leaves and flowers. We also offer a pair of rare lamps decorated with the parrot, urn and leaf motif, as well as a unique lamp with the same motif. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Please take a look at all our photos to discover the finesse of the design. We actively seek out Maison Baguès pieces and can supply chandeliers and wall sconces to complement this lamp. Please do not hesitate to contact us or visit our website to see our current pieces. Rewired. The 'drip effect' candles in the bulb can be replaced with cardboard candles. The choice is yours. Since the 1860s, the renowned French luxury lighting workshop Maison Baguès has produced pieces that are highly sought after
