Description

Rare "snack" or living room table in patinated cherry wood from the Louis XV period. It opens with a drawer on the front, two shelves between which an open space allows you to store books, objects etc... Very beautiful sides and back "with ears", curved on the front and clover-shaped opening. The whole rests on a curved base ending in deer hooves. No restorations on this beautiful regional piece of furniture. Provenance: Burgundy, 18th century
