Description

1950s ceramic lamp by Jacques Blin. Very interesting lamp typical of this famous artist. Jacques Blin was a very unique artist full of talents who engaged in artistic creation from the end of the 1940s. He committed himself to the defense of his profession and was president for 20 years of the trade union of ceramists. He participated in the Salon des ceramistes et des métiers d'art. His style, recognizable at first glance, combines the softness of the enamels and the glaze with a graphic design with illustrations of animals and plant motifs. Excellent condition of this beautiful piece which diffuses a very beautiful light while being a very beautiful collector's item.
