Description

Charming figurative brooch representing a poodle jumping through a hoop, in 18K gold and silver. The coat is enhanced with rose-cut diamonds, meticulously set, and the eyes are highlighted with small rubies bringing a touch of life to the look. This animal scene, both precious and joyfully theatrical, evokes the world of the circus or the dressage shows very fashionable at the end of the 19th century. A rare piece, as expressive as it is elaborate. French work from the end of the 19th century, numbered, bearing a partially legible master's mark. A removable safety is attached to the brooch.
